

Dennis J. Hazlett
CEO

Dennis J. Hazlett joined Trautman & Shreve as CEO on February 20, 2018.

Dennis has led various teams of pre-construction, marketing, engineering, project, and field professionals. Over the course of a career spanning more than 25 years, Dennis is highly accomplished in opening new markets, building relationships, and securing and executing business with public and private sector customers. This includes healthcare, higher education, manufacturing, telecommunications, mission critical, commercial, industrial, and state and local government clients.

Dennis holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Northern Colorado and has completed course work for his Master of Business Administration in Organizational Leadership from Colorado State University.